

Raymond G. Hill (born 1945)

B. Pharm., Ph.D., D.Sc., (Hon) F. Med. Sci. Visiting Professor at, Bristol, Surrey, Imperial and Strathclyde Universities. He is President and Chairman of the Council of Trustees of the British Pharmacological Society. He is a non-Executive Director of the Swiss companies Addex and Covagen and of Orexo in Sweden.

Dr. Hill has worked in the pharmaceutical industry for 25 years mostly in basic drug discovery research initially for Parke Davis where he was a founder member of the Cambridge UK unit then at Smith Kline and French and (1990 - 2002) for Merck as Executive Director, Pharmacology at the Neuroscience Research Centre. He then served as Executive Director, Licensing and External Research, Europe for Merck until his retirement on 30th April 2008.

Raymond Hill has not previously performed any work for the company.

Raymond Hill is independent of the company and its senior management, as well as of major shareholders in the company.

Raymond Hill has not previously been elected to the board.

Raymond Hill does not hold any shares or other securities in the company

Information regarding the candidates proposed for re-election are available on the website.