

Statement by the Nomination Committee

The Nomination Committee has proposed that Raymond Hill shall be elected as a new Director of the board. This will strengthen the board's diversity and breadth of qualifications, experience and background, regarding international experience and experience from global pharmaceutical companies. Thereby the board will have a composition more appropriate to the company's operation and phase of development.